- Between 17 and 23 November 1950, biplanes without special markings took off daily from the Dresden-Klotzsche (N 52/F 29) airfield and made local flights. There was also flying on the night of 23 November. Twin-engine aircraft were no longer parked at the landing field. The aircraft possibly were parked in the hangars, since they were not seen leaving the field. A sentry wearing green epaulets with claret-colored borders has been posted recently at the old Lufthansa hangar (German airlines). *

25X1A * ☐ Comment. It is not clear whether a bomber regiment is still stationed at the airfield. Eight PG-2s were last seen at the field on 8 November 1950. ☐
